

Youth barrel racers!

Attend this fun clinic to get your horse tuned-up for barrel racing this summer!

This fun, four-hour clinic will cover:

- Skills you need to get the fastest turns
- Common problems and how to fix them
- How to prevent gate issues and keep your horse from getting unmanageably hot

Instructor and trainer Darren Woller has over 30 years experience riding and competing in speed events with many NBHA World show qualifications. Darren's emphasis is on a fast and effective horse, who is also a well-mannered, safe, and enjoyable ride outside the arena.

In this clinic Darren will watch each rider and work with everyone individually to help tune their pattern. This clinic is tailored specifically for youth riders and will be a fun and positive experience for horse and rider.

Directions: (We are 15 min from UIUC and 4.5 miles east of the Farm and Fleet)

- From I-74: take Cunningham Road exit, north. Turn right (east) onto Oaks Road (which is also County Road 1850 North). Look for the Pemberley sign on your left. (Approx 4.5 miles). Useful landmarks: Past Farm & Fleet, past Country Shoppe (their sign looks like a red stop sign). The road just past the Country Shoppe is Oaks Road.
- From Champaign-Urbana: Take University Blvd (Highway 150) east. Follow the signs to St. Joe. (It will jog to the right--don't miss it!) Pass the sign for Mayview, turn left (north) at the sign for Sellers (which is County Road (1900 E and Highway 24). Turn right (east) on County Road 1850 North and look for the Pemberley sign on your left.
- From St. Joe: Take Highway 150 west, turn right (north) at the sign for Sellers (which is County Road 1900 East and Highway 24). Turn right (east) on County Road 1850 North and look for the Pemberley sign on your left.
